

ISO 9001:2015

What are my transitioning options?

Transition Timeline Summary

DNV GL General Requirements:

- All ISO 9001:2008 certificates issued before March 22, 2017 will expire on Sept. 22, 2018
- Only ISO 9001:2015 certificates will be issued after March 22, 2017 (with few exceptions)
- Most all transition surveys will require a pre-survey (Stage 1 for ISO 9001:2015 only) prior to the full transition survey (Stage 2).
- Communicate your transition intentions to DNV GL as early as possible
- Work diligently to keep your NIAHO and ISO reaccreditation & certifications aligned

If your ISO 9001:2008 recertification is in 2016:

Option 1- Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2016 survey (Best option if your cert. expires 4th qtr.)

Option 2- Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2017 survey

Option 3 (BEST Option) – Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2018 survey

*NOTE- you should plan to complete your Stage 2 survey no later than 7/1/18 in order to meet the final deadline of 9/22/18

If your ISO 9001:2008 recertification is in 2017:

Option 1- Transition to ISO 9001:2015 early, during your 2016 survey

Option 2- Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2018 survey

Option 3 (BEST Option) – Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2017 survey

If your ISO 9001:2008 recertification is in 2018:

Option 1- Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2016 survey

Option 2- Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2018 survey

Option 3 (BEST Option) – Transition to ISO 9001:2015 during your 2017 survey

There are circumstances that might affect your transition timeline.
Contact us for a personal review.